

Press Kit - Pete

Pete is an Alternative solo artist based around song-writing skills and energetic soulful live performances. Mainly based around the Vocals/ Guitar/ Harmonica/ arrangement he is often best described by fans as a mix of The Rolling Stones, The Beatles & The Brian Jonestown Massacre rolled into Bob Dylan.

" With so much determination and talent, sooner or later Pete will probably make it big, and don't he deserve it ! " - Music-News.com

Petar Kosanovic (Pete) was born in Serbia former Yugoslavia. At age of 4 he has learned to play the piano with his father, at age 6 he took up the violin, at age 10 came to England during the 90s conflict in his homeland and moved to the home counties. At the age of 13 he took up bass guitar, at age 15 he taught himself guitar and singing & at 17 playing harmonica. He has since played many great venues and festivals around the UK and France alongside artists like Graham Coxon, Mick Whitnall (Babyshambles) and British Sea Power to name a few including The Barfly in Camden, The O2 Academy in Oxford, Camden Crawl, club nights around London such as No Time For Heroes that were highly rated by the press in 2010 and Alan Mcgee's (Creation Records) very own club night Greasy Lips at the beginning of this year. Now at the age of 22 with a vast back catalogue with hundreds of songs written and ideas as well as self released Debut Album 'Lost & Found' he is looking for a Booking Agent, Management, and a possible label to release his music.

" Fantastic ! " - Andy Ross (Former boss & head of A&R of Food Records, 120 consecutive top 100 singles, six UK number one albums with three different artists including Blur)

If you would be interested in working with Pete,

Get in touch:

<http://www.musicbypete.co.uk>

<http://www.myspace.com/thisisattpete>